

Privacy Policy

This privacy policy sets out how Rarebase uses and protects any information that you give Rarebase when you use this website. If you wish to discuss any matter relating to your personal information then please contact us via the contact details below.

Summary

Rarebase Ltd. will never share your details with any third parties. You are part of the Rarebase Ltd. community and that is where your details will stay.

Privacy policy in full

We are committed to protecting your privacy online. We will never share your details, phone numbers or email addresses with any third parties. You are part of the Rarebase community and that is where your details will stay.

Service providers

Your personal information collected on this site may be processed in the United Kingdom or elsewhere (including the United States) depending where our service providers and/or affiliates and/or service partners maintain facilities. We use the Safe Harbor Framework established by the US Department of Commerce regarding the collection, use and retention of data from within the European Union. When you use this site you are consenting to the collection, use and transfer of your personal information in accordance with this policy.

Information collected

Your information is collected if you choose to subscribe to our Networking Platform, complete a form on our site, or send an email to us. The information that is provided by you will only be used for the purpose for which it is provided, unless you are informed otherwise at the time of providing the information. You may inform us at any time if you wish us to cease using your personal information. We request that you do not provide any identifiable information about anyone other than yourself to us, unless authorized to do so.

Use of personal information

We may from time to time use your contact information to tell you about news or events provided by Rarebase Ltd. or one of our media partners. If you choose to, you may opt-out of receiving such mailings at any time.

If you believe that any information we are holding on you is incorrect or incomplete, please contact us as soon as possible. We will promptly correct any information found to be incorrect.

Use of Cookies

A cookie is a small file which asks permission to be placed on your computer's hard drive. Once you agree, the file is added and the cookie helps analyze web traffic or lets you know when you visit a particular site. Cookies allow web applications to respond to you as an individual. The web application can tailor its operations to your needs, likes and dislikes by gathering and remembering information about your preferences.

We use traffic log cookies to identify which pages are being used. This helps us analyze data about web page traffic and improve our website in order to tailor it to customer needs. We only use this information for statistical analysis purposes.

Overall, cookies help us provide you with a better website, by enabling us to monitor which pages you find useful and which you do not. A cookie in no way gives us access to your computer or any information about you, other than the data you choose to share with us.

You can choose to accept or decline cookies. Most web browsers automatically accept cookies, but you can usually modify your browser setting to decline cookies if you prefer. This may prevent you from taking full advantage of the website.

Links

There may be links on our web site to third-party websites, which we have no control over. We accept no responsibility or liability for any third party practices on third party websites. We advise you to carefully read third-party privacy statements prior to the use of any third party website.

Security

In order to prevent unauthorized access or disclosure of your information we have in place suitable physical, electronic and managerial procedures to safeguard and secure the information you provide to us via the site. However no data transmission over the internet can be guaranteed to be 100% secure and whilst we strive to protect your personal information, we cannot ensure or warrant the security of any information you transmit to us or our site and you do so at your own risk.

Variations

Rarebase Ltd. may change this policy from time to time by updating this page. You should check this page from time to time to ensure that you are happy with any changes. This policy is effective from 15st December 2015.
